

The Consumer Bankers Association (CBA) has chosen to challenge Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. As a private citizen I am requesting that this does not happen. If the CBA wins this challenge then the purpose of the telephone privacy act would have served no purpose. This Act maintains our privacy, so we do not have to listen to our phone rings during dinner hour or have to screen every call that come in.

Thank You,
Deb Hall